What is Consumer Reports?

Consumer Reports is an independent, nonprofit member organization that works side by side with consumers for truth, transparency, and fairness in the marketplace.

Consumer Reports works to assist the consumer with purchase decisions, improve the products and services that businesses deliver, and drive regulatory and fair competitive practices.

Logging on to Consumer Reports with your Library card allows you to see Consumer Reports investigations and videos, articles, ratings, recommendations, buying guides, best time to buy guides, and more.

How to Access Consumer Reports

1. Go to the library's website, lincolnwoodlibrary.org
2. Hover over Resources. Select Resource Quick Links.
3. Select Consumer Reports.
4. On the page that loads, enter in your full Library card number from below the bar code on the back of your card, 21242000XXXXXX all the numbers but omitting spaces.
5. Select Sign in.

Library Card

Once you're signed in, Consumer Reports will direct you to their homepage to get started.

Navigating Consumer Reports

Consumer Reports is well organized to find the information you're looking for. At the top left corner of the page you will find the menu.

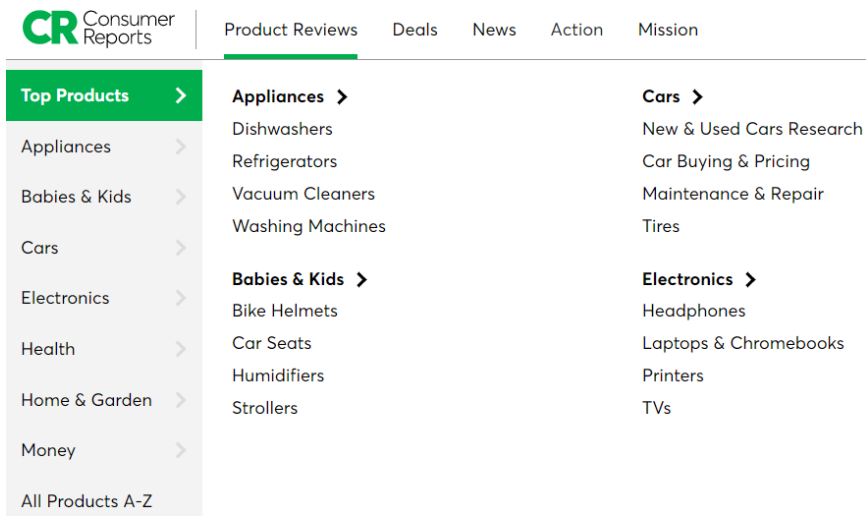

Product Reviews is the biggest section, which allows you to see ratings for cars, electronics, appliances, and much more.

In the News section you will find articles on a large variety of topics covering new products to issues concerning consumers.

The Action section allows consumers to advocate for issues they care about, sign petitions, and learn more about topics such as avoiding hidden fees or choosing cable TV over online streaming services.

Finding Product Reviews

To start searching and comparing product reviews, click on Product Reviews, and select the category in which you're interested.

For more detailed instruction, book a one-on-one session with a librarian. Registration requires a Lincolnwood Library Card. For scheduling, contact Adult Services at (224) 233-1859.

Once you've selected the product you're looking for you'll be taken to its overview page. This page will typically have a link to a buying guide, ratings, recommended products, any relevant news on the particular item you're looking for, and more.

At the top of the page you will see the following tabs:

The ratings page is where you can view different models and brands of the product you're looking for and see how each item has been rated in terms of it's reliability, owner satisfaction, and other categories which may be specific to the particular item. For instance, refrigerators are rated by thermostat control, and cars are assigned a road test score.

Filters narrow your search.
